Introduction

For brands that sell their products on Macys.com, figuring out how to maximize channel sales is critical for business. It can be challenging to know where to begin, how to drive sales both on Macys.com and in Macy's stores, and ultimately, how to stand out from the competition.

The key to rising above the noise? Amplify the voices of Macy's shoppers. Peer-trusted feedback, like ratings and reviews, not only validates product quality and customer affinity, but also has a significant impact on purchase decisions.

The impact of user-generated content

A user-generated content (UGC) strategy done right will increase the discoverability of your products, boost sales, and create a valuable dialogue with your customers. It can also inform SEO benefits, provide insights for product innovation, reduce return rates, and ensure shoppers have a positive experience with your brand. While Macy's has their own strategies to collect ratings and reviews, brands that come to the table with their own UGC strategies set themselves ahead of the rest.

Best practices for responding to reviews

Be sympathetic

Show customers that you understand frustration and make them feel like their opinion is valid.

Help future shoppers

Your response may have a major influence on future shoppers' purchase decisions. So, treat your response as valuable information for a larger audience than just the person who left the review.

Be personal

Consumers appreciate authenticity, so avoid using cookie-cutter responses or excerpts from your policies.

Respond quickly

Be sure to respond to a negative review within 24-48 hours, as this will further demonstrate a sense of urgency on your part to resolve the issue.

Respond both on and offline

Going the extra mile to follow up with a complaint offline will show your customers that you are determined to make things right and will also allow for another opportunity to turn things around.
